25X1 6. (Confidential - GLC) Called Marshall Wright, Assistant Secretary of State for Congressional Relations, this morning and told him of the conversation that [] OCI, and I had with Senator Bennett Johnston 25X1 (D., La.) and two members of his staff over the phone last night. I told him that in view of Johnston's statements that State had not seen any cause for concern regarding his trip we had backed off somewhat in advising him against going, although [] pointed out the risks of a visit to Israel.
Wright said he had also backed off after he had talked with [] 25X1 and found that [] had seen no problems in the Senator's going to the Middle East. 25X1

25X1 7. (Unclassified - GLC) Left with the staff of Representative James Jones (D., Okla.) an unclassified map of the Middle East area which he might find useful. I requested only that the Congressman not indicate the Agency as the source of the map since we had only a limited supply of them.

8. (Internal Use Only - RW) Late in the day Mr. Lehman's office, in the White House, called to invite Mr. Maury to attend a meeting in Mr. Timmon's office in the White House tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. to discuss the Middle East situation. I confirmed that Mr. Maury would attend.

9. (Confidential - JGO) Met with Dr. John Brady, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, and received from him a draft Committee sketch labeled "The Drug Traffic" (figure 2) for our review. [] 25X1 has been advised. NARCOG,

10. (Confidential - JGO) Talked to Garner J. Cline, Counsel, Subcommittee on Immigration, Citizenship and International Law, House Judiciary Committee, several times during the day concerning the briefing on terrorism scheduled for Thursday, 18 October. Due to the press of Committee business, it was finally necessary to cancel the briefing for the present. Bill Nelson, DDO, and [] CI Staff, have been 25X1 advised.

11. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Received a call from Dorothy Fosdick, Senate Permanent Investigations Subcommittee staff, who asked that I come by in the morning to talk to her about a matter that cannot be discussed on the telephone.
